 All the criminals confined in the county jail are now engaged in clearing off and grading the block selected as a court house site. Marshal Spencer is superintending the force.
 George Hoxworth, Dick Jones and E. Ross spent Saturday and Sunday shooting at Rogers Lake. They report ducks plentiful, and succeeded in bagging a goodly number of them.
 The case of Boucher vs. Randolph, which was set for hearing in Judge Layton's court on September 28th, was continued until October 15th, owing to the absence of material witnesses.
 The recent attempts at housebreaking should be a warning to those who keep money around the house. Our bank furnishes ample protection to depositors, and pays fair interest on time deposits.
 Wool Growers! If you want to keep your sheep healthy and insure a good clip, use Hayward's Sheep Dips. Write to Christy & Wise, wool commission merchants, San Francisco, and they will send you full particulars.
 The Arizona Central Bank issues time certificates, payable in New York exchange. These are a convenient form of deposit, as they bear interest and can be cashed at maturity anywhere in the United States, or used as remittances.
 Arizona ranges can turn off as good and fat cattle as any section of the southwest, but operations of the speculators who have worked off large numbers of Sonora steers on the Kansas farmers as Arizona steers has given our neighbor's stock a hard name, as every man who handled the common stock from that section lost money on them. —Las Vegas Stock Grower and Farmer.
 John Cusick, who broke into a freight car at Williams last July, and who was arrested at Omaha, Nebraska, last week, was delivered over to Sheriff Francis at this place Monday, by detective Kneenan, of the A. & P. railroad. The last Grand Jury found an indictment against Cusick, and he will now be held until the next session of the District Court. Ed. Haggerty, who was implicated with Cusick in breaking into the car, and who is also under an indictment, is under $250 bonds awaiting trial.
 Last Saturday forenoon John Faulk, John Wilson and Charles Bennett, three prisoners confined in the county jail awaiting trial for burglary, tired of jail life and made a break for liberty. They succeeded in removing a portion of one of the walls and stepped out into freedom. But their enjoyment of out-door exercise was of short duration. Bennett weakened and returned to jail on his own accord, while Faulk and Wilson, who were chained together, took to the east end of town, where their shackles were broken. Sheriff Francis and Deputy Fairchild soon discovered the escape, and began tracking the men, who were apprehended a short distance out of town and returned to their old quarters.

Geologists Back from the Canyon.
 The thirty-six members of the Fifth International Congress of Geologists, who went to the Grand Canyon on Thursday morning, returned last night, being just seven days in making the trip. Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather in that region at this time of the year, the party were highly pleased with the result of their trip. They left this morning for a trip to the Cliff Dwellers, accompanied by a number of Flagstaff citizens. Among those from Flagstaff who went with the geologists to the Canyon were: Dr. Brannen, Niles Cameron, Ed. Gale, R. A. Ferguson, Wm. Moats, A. C. Morse, D. M. Riordan, and Dr. and Mrs. Powers, of Los Angeles, Cal.
 The party will leave this afternoon for Washington, on their private cars, in charge of Luther L. Holden, of Boston, representing Raymond & Whitcomb.

Yuma Prisoner's First Inmate.

The Yuma Times gives the following account of that penitential personage: Last Friday, William Hall walked out of the Yuma penitentiary for the third time a free man once more. Hall stands on the prison register as No. 1, being the first convict committed after the establishment of the institution at that place. This was in May, 1875. His sentence was for life, for manslaughter committed in Pima county. There being no buildings at that time, Hall spent a year or so of his sentence in the county jail. He was pardoned and released in July, 1884. His next sentence was for grand larceny in Pinal county, and he arrived at the prison again in 1886, on a two years' term. His behavior was good and he received credits, so that he was entitled to discharge in July, 1888. Next he was indicted for the same offense in Maricopa county, under alias of J. J. Runk, found guilty and given a three years' term, arriving at Yuma on May 15, 1889. Again his behavior was good and his credits amounted to eight months, which was deducted from his time.

GOOD LUCK.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is often called the Good-Luck Baking Powder.

Owing to the fact that good luck always attends the use of Dr. Price's, it is not essential to use it the moment it is mixed nor is it required to have the oven always just so, as in the case with ammonia or alum powders. It is not luck after all, but the exact accuracy and care exercised in the preparation and combination of all the ingredients of Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder. Competent chemists are employed to test the strength and purity of each ingredient. Nothing is trusted to chance. Hence; it is always uniform in its work.

House wives never fail to have "good luck" in making most delicious bread, biscuit, pastry and cakes that remain moist and sweet. Only Baking Powder that contains the white of eggs.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder is reported by all authorities as free from Ammonia, Alum, or any other adulterant. In fact, the purity of this ideal powder has never been questioned.

P. J. BRANNEN,
 Flagstaff, Arizona.

William McGowan was arrested Monday morning upon a warrant charging him with having stolen a saddle from Alden Smith Saturday night. McGowan had tried to dispose of the saddle to several parties in town, offering it for a mere trifle, but was unsuccessful in making a trade. He had a hearing before Justice Layton Monday afternoon, was found guilty as charged, grand larceny, and was bound over in the sum of $250 to appear before the next Grand Jury. Being unable to furnish the bond, McGowan now languishes in jail. There is also a charge of burglary recorded against this same individual, for entering the room of Manual Chaves, a Mexican, and taking therefrom a saddle. Evidently McGowan has an inclination to go into the saddlery business.

Look out for Fires.

There are about one hundred, buildings within the town of Flagstaff, which have an ordinary stove pipe with a piece of tin nailed on the roof where the pipe runs through. This carelessness endangers many buildings, and it is clearly against the law. The law provides that all flues be built of stone or brick. The Sanitary Inspector is made Fire Marshal, and it is his duty to inspect all buildings or structures in which fire is or may be used within the fire limits, which in this case embraces the town of Flagstaff. We understand that the persons owning buildings who have not complied with the law have been notified by the Fire Marshal and but few have complied with the notification. They are subject to a fine of ten dollars and the costs of the action against them, and an arrest and fine may be imposed every twenty four hours, for neglect in this respect. Every citizen who owns property in Flagstaff should see to it that all flues are of brick.

The seventh annual session of the Arizona Methodist Mission Conference convenes at this place on Thursday next.
